Angels on Earth

Tiffany Evans

Have you ever walked down a dark road
Not sure which way to turn
Or been the passenger in a speeding car
So afraid you might get hurtSomehow someone saved me
An invisible hand and a indestructible loveThere are angels on earth
There right by your side
Your saved and you can't explain why
When you think your alone
And no one can hear your pray
Angels on earth will be there (o yeah)Have you ever wished upon a shining star
Hoped that your wish will come true
Or watched somebody you loved passed on
But strangely your not aloneSomehow something guides you
An invincible hand
The most fearful loveThere are angels on earth
There right by your side
Your saved and you can't explain why
When you think your alone
And no one can hear your pray
Angels on earth will be thereForget when your in a hole
Their right there to bring you home (oh yeah)
Just close your eyes
And they'll help you to flyThere are angels on earth
There right by your side
Your saved and you can't explain why
When you think your alone
And no one can hear your pray
Angels on earth will be there
