

How London Got Its Fog

From a Second Story Window look away from these eyes that draw you in look away your always on my mind im bleeding and the blood, it spells your name dripping from my mouth is the breath id give for you to smell you is a taste of heaven all the time in the world traded for just one second you're almost to good to be true believe a heart so strong with blood that runs deep stay away

touch of death burns my skin REV THAT ENGINE, SHOW ME WHAT YOUR MADE OF cut me and i will bleed for you blood that you warmed in my veins YOU'LL ALWAYS HAVE MY HEART
BURY HER
IN THESE WORDS in these words, i will bury her all my dreams are coming true every second that i spend here with YOU.
REV THAT ENGINE SHOW ME WHAT YOUR MADE OF
