Two Janes

Los Lobos

Two Janes running along the tracks
Saying "We don't want to live this way Ain't never coming back"Jane number one looked as happy as can be Jane number two knew what could set them free
Too many nights hiding under beds
Too many fears to fill their pretty heads
Everybody knows they must have been insane
So goes the tale of two JanesTears falling down behind the bedroom door
"No matter how I try, I just don't know what for Too many times, I'm banging into walls
Too many times, I cry but no one ever calls"
Everybody knows they must have been insane
So goes the tale of two JanesJane number one is standing at the gate
Jane number two has the key that holds their fate
Too many angels with brand new silken wings
Too many cries for love but no one hears a thing
Everybody knows they must have been insane
So goes the tale of two Janes
Everybody knows they must have been insane
So goes the tale of two Janes

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/