

Need You Right Now (feat. Mike Thompkins)

Bethany Mota

Like an earthquake brought us to the floor
We're shattered pieces on the ground
I wanna find what we had before
The walls came crashing down Picking up, moving on, waking up alone
Second guess, every second looking at my phone
Thinking back, what we had, where did we go wrong?
And now you've got me screaming out I need you right now
I can't wait for your love, ohh
Lost beyond the circle of our hearts, I know I need you right now
I can't wait for your love, ohh
A million miles separate our hearts, I know But I need you right now oh oh oh
But I need you right now oh oh oh Like a thief you robbed me in the dark
But I thought I locked all the doors
You told me we didn't have that spark
Then you burned me to the core Picking up, moving on, waking up alone
Second guess, every second looking at my phone
Thinking back, what we had, where did we go wrong?
And now you've got me screaming out I need you right now
I can't wait for your love, ohh
Lost beyond the circle of our hearts, I know I need you right now
I can't wait for your love, ohh
A million miles separate our hearts, I know Never know what you had
What you lost in the end
Never know what you had
Now it's gone, it's gone, it's gone Never know what you had
What you lost in the end
Never know what you had
Till it's gone, it's gone, it's gone But I need you right now
I need you right now oh oh oh
I need you right now oh oh oh Never know what you had
What you lost in the end (But I need you right now)
Never know what you had (oh oh oh)
Till it's gone, it's gone, it's gone Never know what you had
What you lost in the end
Never know (Never know) what you had
Till it's gone, it's gone, it's gone oh oh gone
