

Agent Orange

Fit for Rivals

There comes a time when we all have to die
Just like anybody anywhere
If I had a dime for every time that you tried I swear I'd be a millionaire
So come and get your kill, I'm waiting right over here
You know it's me or you and I'm screaming
I, I, I, I, I, I
I, I, I, I, I
Now I know just who you really are I've let go, watching you fall apart
Talk, talk, talk but no-one hears you, I can't wait to tear your world apart Stuck in your ways, you know you're bad anyway
And you're not getting out of here
