Boy Like You

S Club 7

Hey boy
What you need is a girl
Who can give you what you need
A crazy girl, someone like me
Oh boy, you're single and free
You like to play hard, live dangerously
Oh boy, at the flick of your hand
Anything you ask for you can demand
Oh boy, do you ever get bored
Getting all you want and more
What you need is someone like you
Who's gonna blow your pretty world in two
I watch you play around
But that don't bother me
I'm not in a rush cos I can see
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
I watch you paint the town
Cruising up and down
Picking all the cherries off the tree
But a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
It's no joke, it's funny to be
Staring at you but all I'm seeing is me
Like you I like to live loud
If you're looking for a good time
Look what you've found
It's fun spending hard cash
But it's over in a flash
What you need is someone like me
Who's gonna blow your pretty world for free
I watch you play around
But that don't bother me
I'm not in a rush cos I can see
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
I watch you paint the town
Cruising up and down
Picking all the cherries off the tree
But a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
You need a crazy girl
Someone who's gonna show you such a good time

You need a crazy girl
What you need is a girl who can give you what you need
You need a crazy girl
Someone who's gonna show you such a good time
Good time
What you need is someone like me
I watch you play around
But that don't bother me
I'm not in a rush cos I can see
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
I watch you paint the town
Cruising up and down
Picking all the cherries off the tree
But a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
I watch you play around
But that don't bother me
I'm not in a rush cos I can see
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
I watch you do the things
That make you who you are
Can't you see it's written in the stars
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
That a boy like you needs a crazy girl like me
