

Lifetime Enlightenment

MxPx

This is a yellin' song You want something you take it
Can't hide from God can't fake it
He knows your heart He knows mine
You've only got a lifetime Have you no integrity?
Your wasted mind, your apathy
Same old high school mystery
You're too dumb and blind to see You've already made up your mind
You don't care, you don't wanna find
The truth will hit you like cement
Too bad, too sad, it's too late for your enlightenment
