Malfunction

Velvet Acid Christ

malfunction, eats through these dreams, shapes me into 3, memories, beat my head, yeah, the race and the lies, the ruined life destruction unfold of differn't shapes, that explode, the night, i push it further in the light, pulls me to the edge of where i lie. the waves are falling back, into this circle of my life, where they crawl, they push me back again into the knife malfunction, destruction, they push me inside out, malfunction destruction, they push me inside out, calm down and realize, when the end is coming near. they push, they push, they push me inside out. they push, they push, they push my inside's out. they push, they push, they tore me inside out. yeah, shot, kill me, shot down, uhh sike, now kill me, yeah, shot down, racing, the future's nightmare, comes down through the windows of your house no cost of life, four consolations, never changed my mind four reasons they will take a life and drain it out of my soul. your call, no life, no way, they burn you, no call, no life yeah, they push me inside out, yeah yeah yeah. they push me inside out, yeah yeah yeah, they push me inside out.
