

No Good in Goodbye

Jason Michael Carroll

Once upon time used to feel so fine
I really mean to shine
We'd laugh like we were drunk on wine
But not anymore
No not anymore
No not anymore
No not anymore
Used to feel so good
Used to laugh like we should
We did what we could
Come on baby I'm sorry
Would you open the door
Come on open the door
Come on open the door
Come on open the door[Chorus]
Baby don't say the stars are falling from your eyes
Baby just say, say you need me one more time
For you and I
There is no good in goodbye You know I used to love to leave,
Always had something up my sleeve,
I guess I mistook being alone for being free,
But no never again
No never again
No never again
No never again[Chorus] Yes I too was just like you,
Finding comfort in a strangers face,
In some darkened place where no one knew my name
And I was slow to see that everything had changed
And I was sad to see that I would never be the same
But without you by my side I'd go insane,
You make the world make sense
Baby, you make the world make sense[Chorus] For you and I
There is no good in goodbye
There'll be no goodbye
