

Just Friends

Jason Reeves

Hey, what did you think I'd say?
You're everything that I ever wanted
And this kind of thing doesn't just come around
Every time you go looking for it I don't wanna be just friends, no
I'll never fake it or pretend
And I don't want another girl
'Cause you're the only one I love I don't wanna be just friends
That's something I can't understand
I don't wanna be just friends, not now, not ever
Those two words are bullets in my chest, just friends Hey, what did you think I'd do?
It felt so good waking up beside you
And the way you kiss, so delicate
Doesn't come around and I'm always gonna miss it I don't wanna be just friends, no
I'll never fake it or pretend
And I don't want another girl
'Cause you're the only one I love I don't wanna be just friends
That's something I can't understand
I don't wanna be just friends not now, not ever
Those two words are bullets in my chest, just friends
Those two words are bullets in my chest And it's never gonna be the same again, my love
And it's never gonna be the same again Be just friends, just friends, just friends
Don't wanna be just friends, just friends, just friends
Don't wanna be just friends, just friends, just friends I don't wanna be just friends
I don't wanna be just friends no, no
I don't wanna be just friends no, no
Those two words are bullets in my chest, just friends
Bullets in my chest, bullets in my chest, just friends
