

Instinct

Arch Enemy

Lyrics: Michael Amott
The more I see - the less I believe
The more I hear - the less I care
This world we've created
Has left me cold
This world is sedated
Dying in it's sleep I feel nothing
Seen it written on a thousand faces
The simple truth we fear
Seen it happen in a thousand places
Instinct brought us here
The more I see - the less I believe
The more I hear - the less I care
We used to be the chosen ones
Second to none
Look at what we've become
A pathetic excuse for life I feel nothing
I can feel nothing
Nothing at all
Except for the pain
That hits me again
Again
Lead - Christopher Amott
Lead Harmony - Michael and Christopher Amott
