Weird Nightmare

Charles Mingus

Weird nightmareWeird nightmare
You haunt my every dream
Weird nightmare
Tell me what's your scheme?
Can it be that you're a part
Of a lonely, broken heart?Weird nightmare
Why must you torment me?
Weird nightmare
Pain and misery
In a heart that's loved and lost
Take away the grief you've causedCan't sleep at night
Twist, turn in fright
With the fear that I'll live it all again
In my dreamsYou're there to haunt me
When you say he doesn't want me
I've been hurt
Do you know what that means?Weird nightmare
Take away this dream you've born
Weird nightmare
Mend a heart that's torn
That has paid the price of love a thousand fold
Bring me a love with a heart of goldWeird nightmare
Take away this dream you've born
Weird nightmare
Mend a heart that's torn
That has paid the price of love a thousand fold
Bring me a heart with a love of gold
Weird nightmare
