

Cadence (feat. Reija Lee)

Metrik

I know this place is unfair
And I know we'll never compare
We go, skin-to-skin friction
Lust to addiction, you must know that I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love
But I'm holding back
I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love
And I'm burning cause We
We're on fire
And I'm on fire (x2) I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love
But I'm holding back (x2) Don't show any affection
They know when there's rebellion
Lay low, blend into bleakness
Touch me in secret, they can't know that I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love
But I'm holding back
I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love I want your love
And I need your love
I want your love
But I'm holding back (x2) » ;
