

Wolf River

The Careful Ones

Pain its cold when your love breaks hold left to find a way
Petrified by the low. Wear your clothes, make your tasteful jokes
A few day or so before they'll ever see... and if you come around today
I can't promise that it wouldn't hurt, if you come around today

I can't promise that it would be worth it. So follow me down
Down the wolf river. Below the ground is where you will forget her
We'll watch the light dance atop the blue blue mirror
Nothing left to think about, do you feel anything now

On the east fork flow, near the island coast, is where you dove
The Mississippi feed. Were there pages you wrote still left in your coat
We'll never know and never hear you sing
And if you come around today I can't promise that it wouldn't hurt

If you come around today I can't promise that it would be worth it
So follow me down, down the wolf river
Below the ground is where you will forget her
We'll watch the light dance atop the blue blue mirror
