

The Touch of You

The Four Seasons

Like time that's ticking in,
Right off that pain begins,
That pain that never seems to end
It just clicks right to my heart.
I can't sleep when we're apart
Because I...I...I, I need the touch of you.No matter what I do
I can't stop loving you
Will this broken heart ever mend?
How I cry, such a lonely night
Like a child that's lost its kite
Because I, I, I, I need the touch of youMaybe some sunny day
You'll come back, home to stay
Just think it over, I'll be right there.No matter what I do, I can't stop loving you
Will this broken heart ever mend?
It just clicks right to my heart
I can't sleep since we're apart
Because I, I, I, I need the touch of you
