Waitin'

Walter Egan

Something's been shaking up my head
Woke up this morning in another man's bed
I'm feeling uneasy about my face
I look for love but there's just not a traceAin't it hard, yeah
Waitin' for love
Ain't it hard, yeah
Waitin' for loveI see a woman that I'd like to meet
My mind is wracked with insecurity
The taste of fear is not a happy one
When you look for the words but they just never comeAnd it's hard, yeah
Waitin' for love
It's hard, yeah
Waitin' for loveIt's a hard way to find out that sadness is real
Make you crawl and it will make you kneel
I kind of get the feeling like I'm not myself
I just can't make it as someone elseAin't it hard, yeah
When you're waitin' for love
Ain't it hard, yeah
Waitin' for loveAin't it hard, yeah
Waitin' for love
It's hard, yeah
Waitin' for love
