

She Sings in the Morning

Pierce the Veil

Wake up
A voice hits the air on a lonely coast
And I'll sing along like a prayer for you
I can dream up the words I'll never see your face again If we wake at
If we wake at all
She sings to me If we wake at
If we wake at all
If we wake at all
Try We'll try to change
They say love will never mean a thing
Still our hearts beat, so come on So stuck on the only thing that we know
What we know starts to waste If we wake at
If we wake at all
She sings to me
(Can we be sure) If we wake at
If we wake at all
Oh, my God
