

From Heaven from Hell

Golden Earring

From the Album:

* Together If there's a reason why you leave me

Then I like to hear it now

I'll simply bend my head

I won't cry out loud

I know all this time we spent together

Was not so important to you

You always knew

There would come a time

That I would sing my blues

And now you're playing with me

Like you're playing card

I'm losing before you start

You know every trick

Of every game

You look right through my heart

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

For ever I'm lost in your spell

Ooh and I would be a liar

If I'm telling you

That I don't give a damn

That you don't love me like I do

Oh babe

Babe I'm begging you

I'm begging you down on my knees

Oh please stay some more time

I'd rather be dead than free

Alright you leave me all alone

I see the curtain fall

And while you softly close the door

It's your name I call

Oh you're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

You're from heaven from hell from heaven

For ever I'm lost in your spell
