

That's A Woman

Celtic Thunder

Woman, such a delicate creature
Every feature needs to be loved from the start
Defend her and she'll surrender
Offend her and she will harden her heart
A delicate creature is something she ain't, but atake it from me that's a woman
That isn't an angel, that isn't saint, but atake it from me that's a woman
She knows how to please and she knows how to play, take it from me that's a woman
Forget to honor love and obey she'll take you and break you and throw you away,
That's a woman, That's a woman.
She knows every move and knows every trick, take it from me that's a woman
How to kill with a word and cut to the quake(?) take it from me, that's a woman
How to look through you as if you're not there, take it from me that's a woman
How to say no with a flick of her hair, she'll turn you and burn you and not even care, That's a woman, that's a woman
Faithful and true, that's a woman, trusting in you, that's a woman
Gentle and constantly caring, strong as the love she is sharing
When you look in the eyes of a woman (look in here eyes, you'll see nothing but lies, that's a woman)
And through the disguise of a woman (every one is the same, she's just playing a game, she's a woman)
You'll see in all there, there's romance in the air
Nothing else can compare, that's a woman.
Woman, so soft and beguiling,
See her smiling, and feel your heart all aglow
Enfold her, lay her head on your shoulder
And hold her till you just can't let her go.
Treat her as if you just don't give a damn, that's how to handle a woman
Be more of a stallion, less of a lamb, that's how to handle a woman
Keep her hanging around till she's ready to burst, that's how to handle a woman
Don't try to be bad, be the worst, do unto others but just do it first
To a woman, to a woman
Be wise, be wary and be on your guard, that's how to handle a woman
If you feel that you're falling, you'd better be hard, 'cause that's how to handle a woman
Don't let her get closer, and don't let her in, that's how to handle a woman
Cuz if you allow her get under your skin, my friend that's the end, cause you ain't gonna win
With a woman, with a woman
Look at her body and look at her move, now that's what I call a woman
I'm thinking now I've got something to prove, 'cause that's what I call a woman
All my moves are stalling here, I can't get through to this woman
The pipes, the pipes are calling here, I think I could be falling here for this woman

What a woman

Faithful and true, that's a woman (She couldn't be true, she's just playing with you, what a woman)

Trusting in you, that's a woman (Trusting in who, you just haven't a clue, what a woman)

Gentle and constantly caring (Just let it be this one's for me, what a woman)

Strong as the love she is sharing

When you look in the eyes of a woman

And through the disguise of a woman

You'll see it(?) all there, there's romance in the air

Nothing else can compare, that's a wo-

Who would have thought I'd ever get caught

What a woman!
