She Walked Away

BarlowGirl

She couldn't take one more day
Home was more her prison now
Independence called out
She had to get itA fight was all she needed
To give her reason
She slammed the door with no goodbye
And knew that it was timeNow she's driving to fast
She didn't care to glance behind
And through her tears she laughed
It's time to kiss the past goodbyeI'm finally on my own
Don't try to tell me no
There's so much more for me
Just watch what I will beShe walked away
Couldn't say why she was leaving
She walked away
She left all she had believed in
She walked awayNot a day goes by
For the ones she's left behind
They're always asking, "Why?"
And thoughts of her consume their mindsGod please let her know
The love we tried to show
Would promise anything
If you'd just bring her homeShe walked away
Couldn't say why she was leaving
She walked away
She left all she had believed in
She walked awayTell her we love her
And tell her she's wanted
And one more thing God
Tell her please, come home
Please, come homeShe walked away
Couldn't say why she was leaving
She walked away
She left all she had believed inShe walked away
Couldn't say why she was leaving
She walked away
She left all she had believed inThe choice is yours alone now
Tell me how this story endsWhile the son was still a long way off
His father saw him, and felt compassion for him

And ran and embraced him and kissed him
"Let us celebrate for this child of mine was dead
And he has come back to life
He was lost and now he is found"
And they began to celebrate
Luke 15:20 and 24
