Can't Judge Me

Mario Winans

Oh baby
Im only human baby
Oh ladyWe had some words the other day
I didnt mean to act that way
When I see you now
You wont look in my face
You just turned awayYou think you got me figured all out
But look what you make me out to be
You think you got a nigga sold out
But dont really know the half of me
And I say things that I dont meanI know it feels so bad
To hear them words I said
That aint me, cant you see?
Im not like that at all
Only one side you saw
Understand, you cant judge me by thatNow Im thinking back on a time
When everything with us was fine
I still know you name
But you forgot mine
And I cant let it go, babyYou think you got me figured all out
But look what you make me out to be
You think you got a nigga sold out
But dont really know the half of me
And I say things that I dont meanI know it feels so bad
To hear them words I said
That aint me, cant you see?
Im not like that at all
Only one side you saw
Understand, you cant judge me by thatDont decide that you know me completely
Even though I hurt your feelings deeply
Dont judge meI know it feels so bad
To hear them words I said
That aint me, cant you see?
Im not like that at all
Only one side you saw
Understand, you cant judge me by thatThink about how we used to be
Why did our friendship have to end there
So quick to pass judgment on me
Tell me why cant I make you see that

And I say things that I dont meanI know it feels so bad
To hear them words I said
That aint me, cant you see?
Im not like that at all
Only one side you saw
Understand, you cant judge me by thatI know it feels so bad
To hear them words I said
That aint me, cant you see?
Im not like that at all
Only one side you saw
