Voices In a Dream

Echoes Of Eternity

I hear you calling me
Just like the voices in a dream

I can remember
Daylight dancing in your eyes
And when my mind is still
The memories come alive

The silent space between my thoughts
Is where your soul resides
And when my heart is still
The memories come to life

Memories haunting me
They echo through eternity
I hear you calling me
Just like the voices in a dream

When fear and darkness overcome
I have no need to hide
I only need to call your name
In my heart you are still alive

Voices in a dream

Memories haunting me
They echo through eternity
I hear you calling me
Just like the voices in a dream
