DEHYDRATED 'Awake in Era'

Song Lyrics: SICKNESS

I hate you and myself,
I hate everything that we have
You hurt people so much but now I do
You crippled her like I cripple you
You knew it all, made no change
I know it all but do the same
I know it all I feel the same

You gave it birth and cankered yourself, bitch
You donâ€™t matter to me
You killed her

You opened my eyes
You gave way and got lost
Youâ€™re a loser at most
You couldnâ€™t fight it off
For your only love

You were my idol
I believed in you
But my eyes were shut
You was a monster
And gave him birth

You gave it birth and now youâ€™re gone
Why donâ€™t you take me all along?
You found peace, and forgot about me
I eat myself
HELP ME.. FREE!!

I close my eyes and see the blood
I open eyes and suffer pain!

Iâ€™m left alone
The heart rots away
Such shit in my soul

The end is clear as day

You gave it birth and cankered yourself, bitch

You don't matter to me

You killed her

You look in mirror of Satan

Save us from yourself

I don't want the after death

remembered how of you

You don't deserve anything

What good she said.

I want to forget everything, like a bad dream

I want to forget you, myself ... who I am ...

You look in mirror of Satan

Save us from yourself

I want to recovery, really want ... but I can't without you ... I can't ...
