Hood

Perfume Genius

You would never call me baby
If you knew me truly
Oh but I waited so long for your love
I am scared baby that I can't keep it up for longBoy I wish I grow up the second
I first held you in my arms
Underneath this hood you kiss
I tick like a bombYou would never call me baby
If you knew me truly
Oh but I waited so long for you love
I will fight baby not to do you wrong
