Windows Down!

Wilson

'm on my way can't to feel the world with my windows down
No, no, no no more weight, can't wait to hear the world roll my windows downTaking 94 to the east town, driving west to find my friendsDoing shots with Cassie Corridor. Found my heart on JeffersonYea, I remember where I came from. All the faces and the people that I've learned from.
While my wheels spin round and round with my windows down I can hear them loud
And I will never stop now!On my way one way highway with the windows down
I Wanna hear the world scream my name roll my windows down
Yea! Do You remember you were young once? Everybody's got a story that they run from.
Been round and round since day one, but I still know where I came from.Detroit, Michigan!On my way one way highway with the windows down
I Wanna hear the world scream my name roll my windows down
On my way one way highway with the windows down
I Wanna hear the world scream my name roll the windows downRoll Roll RollI wanna hear that sound. I wanna Hear That Sound
I wanna hear the world scream my name
On my way one way highway with the windows down
I Wanna hear the world scream my name roll the windows down
On my way one way highway with the windows down
I Wanna hear the world scream my name roll the windows down
