

Betcha Gon' Know (The Prologue)

Mariah Carey

Oh welcome to a day of my life
The memoirs of an imperfect angel
Oh welcome to a day of my life
The memoirs of an imperfect angel

Though the lights were low I could see you both in a lovers silhouette and my heart stood still I was frozen right there staring down at her, red dress

So i bolted out the door jumped right into the car it's too dangerous to be in the vicinity of where you are rolled down all the windows just so I can breathe can't believe you just actually did this shit to me

I'm going about a hundred mascara running laughing out of anger but it don't strike me as funny been too good to you I've been virtuous and true to have something like this happen in my own bedroom

Betcha gon know how it feels when i get you back
& your heart`s been cracked
we fade to black and you see your whole world collapse ima la la la la laugh right in your face boy betcha gon know betcha gon

betcha gon

betcha gon
betcha gon x2

so i pull to the side of the road to fix my face but i cant cover with makeup what my tears want to raise i wake up in a haze morning dew and sunrays as i drive i hide my eyes behind my black____ shades a block from the house slowly creep in the driveway tip toe through the door but your there wide awake your like where you been im like sorry but i fell asleep on jazmines sofa i coulda swore that ray-ray called you and told ya your like you ok im like im alright go to sleep ill be fine But if only you knew what was in the back of my mind what you already started what you`d really gon find out there in time

& your heart`s been cracked
when we fade to black

this is for real for real for real Oprah Winfrey whole segment for real for real 20/20 barbara walters for real for real 60 minutes for real

baby
I had all my trust in you and look at what you put me through you got my all crazy somewhere down the line you gon get what you deserve you %*$ You were supposed to save me my Sweet baby

Now were fading away
But you gon know how this feels even if its the last thing I ever do
