

Famous Girl

Romeo

[Intro:]

She just wanna be...

She just wanna...

She just wanna be...[Hook:]

She just wanna be famous, be famous

She fascinated by that life and the cars

And she just wanna be famous, be famous

On Instagram postin pictures like damn I gotta hit it

You take it, so contagious

And I can tell by the way that you are

That you just wanna be...

That you just wanna be...

That you just wanna be famous[Verse 1:]

Hello there darling, features are flawless

And deep astonished and pardon me if I'm honest

But um your body tonic

God it's so supersonic

For real, and the way you walk in them heels

No, you ain't move to this feel

What's the deal? Got a job, where you work?

Louie purse on yo arm,

But still reside with yo moms

I beat the game on yo type

I noticed just what you like

Attention seeker, you steady tweettin them pics from behind

I see right through your disguise

Shorty you're thirsty besides

I see the greed in yo eyes

When you see them ballers arrive

You watchin niggas pockets, say you model I'm stopping

Having out with celebs, every week bottles poppin, I get it[Hook:]

She just wanna be famous, be famous

She fascinated by that life and the cars

And she just wanna be famous, be famous

On Instagram postin pictures like damn I gotta hit it

You take it, so contagious

And I can tell by the way that you are

That you just wanna be...

That you just wanna be...

That you just wanna be famous[Verse 2:]
I understand it, presence is so demandin
Louie, Gucci, Chanel and the Berkin bags hit the standers
Get it dirty Diana, royal this Instagramer
Picture perfect example how love is made to the camera
You model, oh I figure
Bookin it for remember
Laughin at yo agenda, her body bold as December
I get it, you corrupted
Surgery on yo stomach
Livin without a budget
Frontin like you be stuntin
For fame, for name
With the cars and the chains
That shit gold, it's a shame
Do anything for the game
But fairly, apologetic of people shorty I get it
Truth is never accepted
Your motive is so detected[Hook:]
She just wanna be famous, be famous
She fascinated by that life and the cars
And she just wanna be famous, be famous
On Instagram postin pictures like damn I gotta hit it
You take it, so contagious
And I can tell by the way that you are
That you just wanna be...
That you just wanna be...
That you just wanna be famous
