Leftfield

Sonically, we're in control
We're the diamond in your soul
Images come thick and fast
From the future, from the pastThe film starts, the film ends
Nothing is said in between
Just sudden moments from someone else's story
Will it ever be the same again?Hours filled with conversation, no attention paid
Too distracting convention, no need for friends
Will it ever be the same again
Will it ever be the same again?You're original with your own path
You're original, got your own way
You're original with your own path
You're original, got your own wayWill it ever be the same again
Will it ever be the same again?
I need to hear that again
Because a dream starts and a dream must endMy mother told me, "Don't ever change
You're original in your own way"
My mother told me, "Don't ever change
You're original, got your own path"You're original, you're original
Will it ever be the same again
Will it ever be the same again
I need to hear that again
Because a dream starts and a dream must endYou're original, you're original, you're original
You're original, you're original
