Swarmed

Sinergy

Daylight fading dusk awaiting swallowing my lucidnessHell on earth dreams turned to nightmares petrified of existenceI see the shadows even though there is nobody else aroundTake these memories from me and place them never to be foundI've been left here in ruins no one listening to my plea Can't escape the intrusion swarmed with anguish and frailtyCan't I break free?
Drowning into hopelessness
Let me believe in stability's caress Torment I breathe
suffocating willfully
Cascading deep this mirage I needWhen the lights turn out hallucination is my only friend Heading down into a slumber hoping I will meet my endI've been left here in ruins
no one listening to my plea
Can't escape the intrusion
swarmed with anguish and frailtyCan't I break free?
Drowning into hopelessness
in stability's caressTorment I breathe suffocating willfully
Cascading deep
this mirage I need
