

World Upon Your Shoulders

Silverchair

All the bridges in the world won't save you
If there is no other side to cross to
When you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too muchTake the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shouldersHalf full glasses
Lost in empty houses
When you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too muchTake the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shouldersViolent, big and violent
Like a thing that's big
Big and violent
A world that's big and violentWhen you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too muchTake the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shouldersTake the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
