World Upon Your Shoulders

Silverchair

All the bridges in the world won't save you If there is no other side to cross to When you're not feeling ugly The world's not too muchTake the world upon your shoulders Take the world upon your shoulders And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn Take the world upon your shouldersHalf full glasses Lost in empty houses When you're not feeling ugly The world's not too muchTake the world upon your shoulders Take the world upon your shoulders And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn Take the world upon your shoulders Violent, big and violent Like a thing that's big Big and violent A world that's big and violentWhen you're not feeling ugly The world's not too much Take the world upon your shoulders Take the world upon your shoulders And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn Take the world upon your shoulders Take the world upon your shoulders Take the world upon your shoulders
