My Nemesis

Impending Doom

I've felt his presence
I've heard his whispers
Slithered inside me
He's crowded my mindPoisoning, haunting, deceiving
He has a burning desire for my soul
An enemy who takes all control
He hates everything I amIn the Almighty Savior's name
In the Almighty Savior's name
I hope I scare the hell out of you
In the Almighty Savior's nameAnd you'll crush the head of the one strangling you
From breathing the breath of life
The one who blinds you from seeing Heaven
And the Father reaching for you
