

Mary Pretends

Fuel

Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane She just sits back and laughs at the pain
Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane She just sits back and laughs at the pain
Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye, goodbye, time to fly
