Nobody Knows

Lillian Axe

Nobody knows when there's clouds in the skies
When there are tears in your eyes
Nobody knows when you're hurting so bad
So what if they had?Far away, where the hills turn to plains
I sit and I wonder where you are
I dream at night of the memories that we share
I feel your touch, I see your stareChorus:
Nobody knows when you're down and out
Nobody cares what it's all about
When it comes to you, babe
You know I'll always be there
It just seems,
Nobody knows when you're down and outSilent words, a whispered song
Will you still love me when I'm gone?
Now, nobody knows what really matters
Only fools who don't belongChorus
...In my dreams, it never seems that Nobody knowsSoloChorus
