Tonight

Alexandra Burke

Don't you know rule number one
Gotta make me feel wanted
Don't ever flaunt it, run it
Many of the guys wanna try
Wanna die to jump on it
So, so baby tonight
I can't make no longer
I've been here before
Don't want this no longer
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go
See it's all in my eyes
Can't hide so why pretend
Wanna tell the world how I feel about you
It's building inside
I'm thinking of when and where

Running down of time
So I gotta cut through
So baby tonight
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go
Baby tonight
I already know
I'm letting you go
Cause tonight
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go
Baby tonight
I already know
I'm letting you go
Go go go go go go go
