So Gone

Lace

(Beth Hart/Taylor Rhodes/Christopher Ward)Some dreams have faded, some friends are gone
Most nights I find myself walking alone
I used to think I had it all figured out
I still wake up with my head full of doubtI've been around and around and around again
I've been hangin' around and waitin' in vain
I've been kissed and kicked out in the light of the day
And sometimes I don't even know me
I'm so gone, I feel no shame
I'm tired of these losers tryin' to put out my flame
And I know that I don't belong
Don't look for me 'cause I'm so goneSwept through the wreckage of all that I've been
You can't see the damage but you know what I mean
The misfit in 212 is singin' for free
What the radio plays don't mean nothin' to meI've been around and around and around again
I've been hangin' around and waitin' in vain
I've been kissed and kicked out in the light of day
And sometimes I don't even know meI'm so gone, I feel no shame
I'm tired of these losers tryin' to put out my flame
And I know that I don't belong
Don't look for me 'cause I'm so goneSometimes I don't even know
Sometimes I don't even care
Sometimes I don't want to knowSo I'm leavin', I don't give a damn
There ain't nobody gonna kill who I am
I know that I don't belong
Don't look for me, I am so gone
