

Makes Me Think of Home

Ray Wilson

I forget
It's all so vague
Time and distance
Makes me think of home
And it makes me wonder
Makes me think of home
I recall
These same four walls
I felt surrounded
Close my eyes
And thought of light
Nowhere to run
I can't forget
No time to explain
It's all regret
No broken vows
No words left unsaid
No crying
No thoughts in your head
No fear in me
No blame no hurt
No walking away
No crying that's absurd
It all seems so distant
Days grow longer
And it makes me wonder
Makes me think of home
It all seems so distant
Days grow longer
It makes me wonder
Makes me think of home
