

Illusions (feat. Pusha T)

River Tiber

[Intro: Pusha T]

God judge, God knows

What's in his heart until his eyes closed

God judge, God knows

What's in his heart until his eyes closed[Verse 1: River Tiber]

Paper opinions

I never listen

Burning ambitions

Earned my addictions

I forget without forgiving

God as my witness

My mind has been missing

I needed distance[Pre-Chorus: River Tiber]

I don't say a word when I let you know

And I can see clear with my eyes closed

I jump without looking

I jump without looking[Chorus: River Tiber]

But the high is so confusing

High is so confusing

When you get caught in these illusions

Caught in these illusions

And the high is so confusing

High is so confusing

When you get caught in these illusions

Caught in these illusions[Bridge: Pusha T]

God judge, God knows

What's in his heart until his eyes closed

God judge, God knows

What's in his heart until his eyes closed[Verse 2: Pusha T]

Only God judge, God knows

What's in his heart until his eyes closed

I've been searchin' for a Pablo

Since denim jackets with rhinestones

Jeep Wranglers, New Jacks

Spanish niggas is the new blacks

Never thought I'd see the tides turn

Old gangstas are the new rats

New body, new wheels

Money counters for the new bills

I perfected my money dance
I'm like Johnny Dang with a new grill
Smile, bitch, when you see me comin'
Like Player's Club, how them hoes be runnin'
 Greenlight 'em, I reunite 'em
 With a leaf pile of every fallen hundred
 Only God judge, God knows
 What's in his heart until his eyes closed
 I've been cookin' up them pies, yo
 I Billy Blanks 'em like Tae Bo (stretch)
 I'm part psycho, mixed with Michael
 Got the chain on, that's the light show
80 thousand on the left wrist, that's the right Rolex[Pre-Chorus: River Tiber]
 I don't say a word when I let you know
 And I can see clear with my eyes closed
 I jump without looking
I jump without looking[Chorus: River Tiber]
 But the high is so confusing
 High is so confusing
 When you get caught in these illusions
 Caught in these illusions
 And the high is so confusing
 High is so confusing
 When you get caught in these illusions
Caught in these illusions[Outro: Pusha T]
 King Push, yeah
 River Tiber on the track
 Kaytranada
 I'm the last cocalero
