

Spank

D'Menace

thick drops of rain sound like the way you spanked me your pleasure thrills in every way you make me thick drops. .

all by myself and you're not here to take me my red hot stain still makes you call me, baby tattooed your name, so you wouldn't forget to claim if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone

i would try to burn you but i won't

if i think that loving you could be just like a drug

it's all your graces, your deadly sins love and hate you it's so intense

if i could burn you walk away not see you anymore

thick drops of rain sound like the way you miss me your windowpane steams like the way you kiss me you're so profane, that's why i love the way

if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone

if i think that loving you could be just like a drug

like drops of rain your love has no pain

if i see you're like your daddy and i should be gone

if i think that loving you could be just like a drug

if i see that you're the precious i was looking for,

i would try to burn you but i won't

if i could burn you walk away not see you anymore
