To Pass the Time

Mortimer Nova

why do you cry is it because your helpless do you need direction do you just need somewhere to lie your tired eyesnow i wonder why if i never met you what would you be saying and who would it be to and would it be a liedon't wear white to my funeralif i asked you a question but you didn't know the answer would you make a lie up would you pretend to be something i know you're not
