

Song For Sophie

Aura Dione

This is a song for a girl called Sophie used to write her name on my arm.

Time has made us strangers and I don't know her anymore. But I really hope she's made it that someone took her home.

She was lost but wasn't missing
she would always walk alone. She was always like a feather, in the air
I never knew if she was flying or falling
she was always like a feather, in my life.

I hope she flies,
I hope she flies,
I hope she flies. Because of her, I look things that last:
I have a chain - where's your arm?

A promise can be broken,
I won't hurt you anymore
no, no, no But I really hope she's made it
that someone took her home.

She was lost but wasn't missing
she would always walk alone. She was always like a feather, in the air
I never knew if she was flying or falling
she was always like a feather, in my life.

I hope she flies ..She.. La-la-la-la-la-la-la. I hope she flies. (x4) She.. La-la-la-la-la-la-la. (x4) I hope she flies. She was always like a feather, in the air
I never knew if she was flying or falling
she was always like a feather, in my life.
I hope she flies. (x5) She.. La-la-la-la-la-la-la.
