Snail

Porya Hatami

All your seven dreams
Look close, son, and you'll believe
As your things come undone
See you are the only one
Flower, seize the hour I did
I wait
Waiting, waiting for your wake
I'll wait
When you wake up, you're all weak
Throwing your life away
Someday, sorry coming home
Sorry snail, what you wait for
Flower, the pain will wash away
Away

When the sun shines, climbs through your window
Into your bed
When you wake up you're all weak
Throwing your life away
Someday, sorry coming home
Sorry snail, down in my heart
Flower save the hours
Flower away
What you wait for
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower
