

The Second Wrong Makes You Feel Right

From Autumn To Ashes

Begin, present, fade out
Judgment, please, don't fail me now
This time, this time A lesson learned is a picture burned
You're a memory to me
Upon ignition come bear witness
To the greatest therapy So begin, present, fade out,
Judgment, please, don't fail me now That was the day I put your picture aside
(This time)
And Swallowed the fact that our dream had died
(This time)
Every time you close your eyes
(This time)
You should be seeing me
(Time)
This time [Incomprehensible] get the fuck out
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible] Every time you close your eyes
Every time you close your eyes
You should be seeing me
As you lay in bed at night
I'll be there in your dreams So, so, sorrows in
Is that what you heard?
You can cash in on what we wrote Helpless isn't the right word
But it's the first that comes to mind
There's worse things than being unknown
I think in time, I'll That was the day I put your picture aside
(Get by)
Swallowed the fact that our dream had died
(Get by)
Every time you close your mind
(Get by)
You should be seeing me
(Get by)
Get by Begin, present, fade out
Judgment, please, don't fail me now You're to die for, life means more
You're out of sight, with no light
You're to die for, life means more
You're out of sight, with no light You're to die for, life means more
You're out of sight, with no light

You're to die for, life means more
You're out of sight, with no light
