

A Runner with the Pack

Donna Summer

He's got a second side
He's got a sixth sense
He got everythingHe got what it takes
He got what it makes
To be everythingSeems to know all there is to know
I took him here
He steals the showHe's so astute
He's so acute, he's gold
I'm sure he isHe's eloquent
He's intelligent and benevolent
He's an epitome of ability with his expertiseHe's a versatile with a lot of style
He'd mess my heart, every time he smile
So unpretentious, a warm and gentle soulA runner with the pack
No, he's not like that
A runner with the pack
No, he's not like that'Cause he's inventive, attentive, protective, selective
Perceptive, receptive, affective, reflective
A runner with the pack
No, he'd never do thatHe got tolerance
He got confidence
He's significantAnd he's a connoisseur
And a social stir
He's magnificentSo fair and square, he reciprocates
And every way he stimulates
His quality of voracity is greatA runner with the pack
No, not like that
A runner with the pack
No, he's not like that'Cause he's inventive, attentive, protective, selective
Perceptive, receptive, effective, reflective
A runner with the pack
No, he'd never do thatA runner with the pack
No, he's not like that
A runner with the pack
No, he's not like that'Cause he's inventive, attentive selective
Perceptive, receptive, affective, reflective
You know that he's aA runner with the pack
No, he'd never do that
He ain't a runner with the pack
He ain't a runner

He ain't a runner with the pack
He ain't a runner

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>