

Louisiana Rain (Album Version)

Trent Willmon

I couldn't make you change your mind,
Couldn't stop that mornin' train,
I can't stop knowin' that you're gone,
Like I can't stop Louisiana rain I pour this whiskey down my soul,
But nothin' ever seems to change,
'Cause this pain keeps pourin' down,
Like this Louisiana rain All I'm doin' is livin' one drop at a time
So won't you come back, baby,
Before I go an' lose my mind
Stop this Louisiana rain All I'm doin' is livin' one drop at a time, yes I am
So won't you come back, baby,
Before I go an' lose my mind
I'm gonna lose my mind. Damn this river that I've cried,
An' damn this callin' out your name.
Damn these lonely streets I walk,
An' damn this Louisiana rain I can't stop knowin' that you're gone,
Like I can't stop this Louisiana rain

Songwriters

STAPLETON, CHRIS/WILLMON, TRENT Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing, Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>