False Alarms

Allen Stone

Well, I could stop the rain,
The rain from falling,
If you could stop this pain,
This pain that you've been causing,Well, I've been lonely for so long,
I've been waiting for you to come back home,'Cause you, you and all your false alarms,
You've been breaking every inch of my heart,
No, I never meant to cause you any harm,
It's you and all your false alarms,
You and all your false alarms,
You and all your false alarms,
And I could love you more,
Hey, more than you've ever known,
If you could love me full, yeah,
Hey, more than just off and on,'Cause I've been lonely for so long,
And I've been waiting for, for you to come back home,'Cause you, you and all your false alarms,
You've been breaking every inch of my heart,
No, I never meant to cause you any harm,
It's you and all your false alarms,
You and all your false alarms,
You and all your false,
You, yes, you've,
You've been breaking every inch of my heart,
And, no, I never meant to cause you any harm,
It's you and all your false alarms,
You and all your false alarms,
You and all your false alarms.
