

Hammers and Hearts

Daphne Loves Derby

20 hours deep
Oh, it was enough time to see
That everything has changed for me So much for birthday wishes
I've been too busy with bad memories you made me
I don't think I'll get over it
To be honest I can't see how this could be fair
I'm so alone but you seem to be just fine Don't ask me to think
Good intentions will change everything
This could be the last day that I hold my breath
And stay awake for you 20 hours deep
Oh, it was enough time for you
To change everything for me 20 hours deep
I'm drowning myself with thoughts of you
And you're comforting Tell me how this is fair Don't ask me to think
Good intentions will change everything
This could be the last day that I hold my breath
And stay awake for you Stay awake
Stay awake Don't ask me to think
Good intentions will change everything
This could be the last day that I hold my breath and wait for you Don't ask me
Good intentions will change anything
This could be the last day that I hold my breath and wait for you
Stay awake Good intentions will change anything
This could be the last day that I hold my breath and wait for you
Yeah, I'll hold my breath and wait for you
