

Borateen

sElf

Stand awake and unglued
We've got critical plans
What an incredible view
Why don't you soak it all in?I've been given the option
To live into the new year
I've been stuck between
A rock and a vinyl interiorAnd I've got just enough to share
I've got enough to pass it along
And I'm just so damn glad, I'm here
Isn't everyone?Borateen, tell me what's it all mean?
It's bad enough that I'm having to figure it out
Borateen, I'm the king of my castle
When I drown it down, you spin me aroundNot a boy, not a man
Innocence dissolved in your hands
It's a crutch, it's a crush
It's a sudden rush and it's unplannedIt's a ball, it's a chain
It's a crying shame that it's a gas Understand it's only urge anyone has Not just anyoneBold as I've become Bite your lazy tongue
It's a sin to me
All your flattery is just sympathy
It's just sympathy
