

Anger and Fear (You're All Alone)

The Partisans

Smile no more from your tower block floor
Soon you'll be far away
Sing your song to the Vietcong
And just see what they say
Don't ignore the fact that someday
They will catch you unaware
Only time can tell, you'll see
Friend just die but thousands cry
That's all it means to me Your smiles just don't wanna know
As the knifes edge can be seen
As reward for all the effort
All you want is company
So what about you all You know its not so hard to find
Desertion with your head held high
That's all it means
That's all it means to me But as your fears begin to run dry
You'll take the memories home
They won't fade as time goes by When the gunships roar, from the skies they'll fall
And the heat just starts to burn
From this hell you'll realize
That there's just one thing to learn
The wound will always bleed
And your secrets never heal
With guns and bombs to start again
That's all it means
That's all it means to me Cause we're all alone Well you hate the bloody dumb
You won't give in and you see it's fucked up
You have no luck you have no luck
You won't give in and you see it's fucked up
The problem, a problem
You're all alone
You're all alone
