I Think You're Wonderful

This Providence

i woke up this morning
i found that i had a smile on my face
i asked myself whats this for and i remembered you
and i thought of you
reality
you barely know me
i want to know you
i want to sit beside you
and talk about anything i wanna be with you
everyday with you
but that
that wont happen
that probably wont happen
no way
no way
but then i recall last nights drama i got frustrated than i went back to sleep my dreams were of you and your pretty face
when i got up
i wanted to get out of bed and go to your place
but
you barely know me
i want to know you

that wont happen
no way
that'll be the day

but can i just say
i think youre wonderful, wonderful yeah
but you barely know me
i want to know you
no way
because you barely know me and i want to know you
i want to be with you
no way
no way
